with another girl!

Chris Pine had been dating actress Olivia Munn since August, and even shared a romantic meal with her at L.A.'s Madoe on January 21, followed by hand-holding at Voyeur nightclub, before she left for the Sundance Film Festival. But as soon as Olivia, 29, went away, the Star Trek hottie headed out to play. The very next day, Chris, 29, hung out with actress Nathalie Walker, 30, at Hollywood's The Roger Room. Even though Nathalie is reportedly dating someone else, the pair seemed to be having a great time, and plenty of partygoers saw them together. That's why Chris shouldn't have been surprised that Olivia reportedly heard all about his tryst—and promptly broke up with him in the morning!
